

Julia Kellman, Ph.D.
Associate Professor of Art Education

Positions Held

Assistant Professor, Department of Art, University of North Carolina at Greensboro, Greensboro, North Carolina, 1991-1995.

Assistant Professor, Department of Art, University of Northern Kentucky, Highland Heights, Kentucky, 1995-1996.

Assistant Professor, School of Art and Design, University of Illinois at Urbana-Champaign, 1996-2002.

Associate Professor, School of Art and Design, University of Illinois at Urbana-Champaign, 2002-present.

Associate Professor, Department of Psychiatry, College of Medicine, University of Illinois, 2003-present.

Recent Publications

Book:

Kellman, J., Autism, Art, and Children: the Stories We Draw, Westport, Connecticut: Bergin & Garvey, April 2001.

Scholarly Articles:

"Living the questions: A tale of research." Journal of Cultural Research In Art Education. 22, 2004, 140-145.

"Art in the Health Care Setting." Journal of Visual Arts Research. 29(1), 2004, 58, 9-12.

"An expressive arts hospital program for people with HIV/AIDS: A description, two stories and explanations." CultureWorks. 9(1), 2004, <http://aad.uoregon.edu/culturework/current.html>

"HIV, Art, a Journey Toward Healing: One Man's Story." Journal of Aesthetic Education. 39(3), 2005, 33-43.

"Particularity, Presence, Art Teaching and Art Learning." Journal of Aesthetic Education. 41(4), 2007.

"A Place for Healing: A Hospital Art Class, Writing, and the Researcher's Task." Journal of Aesthetic Education. 2007. In press.

"The servant and teacher: 'Poured out like water,' An essay on teaching and living" (2007). (Out for review)

Honors and Awards

John Morgan Award, for service to Central Illinois HIV/AIDS community, by Greater Champaign Community AIDS Project, 2005.

Service and Administration

HIV/AIDS Annual Summer One-Day Workshop, June 2004, 2005, 2006, 2007

The Arts of Healing, Women with breast cancer special arts program and continuing education for medical staff seminar/workshop, April 2006.

The Mind, Body, Spirit Connection, art workshop for people with HIV/AIDS, Peoria City and County Department of Health, Bloomington, IL, May 18, 2006.

Founding Partner, Community Campus Partnerships for Health and Healing, an initiative to provide integrated care for those in need of diverse forms of healing. 2006-

Facilitator with Rene Aumuller, dance, Carle Expressive Art Class and Department of Dance at UIUC collaboration on Bill T. Jones' D-Man in the Waters Performance. The collaboration includes a class art exhibition during performances, discussion of AIDS with Dance Department, attending the final dress rehearsal, and discussion and video of original performance. 2007-2008.

School of Medicine:

Psychiatry Rotation. Art and Medicine. Seminar for Third year medical students every 6 weeks, 2001-present.

HIV/AIDS Clinic, Carle Foundation Hospital:

HIV/AIDS Arts Workshop and Class, Carle Foundation Hospital, Urbana, IL, weekly September-May, 2001-present.

School of Art and Design:

Art Education Co-Chair, fall 2005-2007. Responsibilities included program chairs meetings, graduate committee meetings, advising and consulting with graduate students, general administration activities including tuition differential processing and implementation of student teacher screening, and undergraduate and graduate admissions.

Teaching and Research Interests

Expressive Arts and community; Art's role in the lives of marginalized populations; The narrative of experience; Art, autism, and meaning making in the lives of children with autism; Art, healing, and people with HIV/AIDS; The spiritual nature of art and healing.